The Days of David and Solomon

An open book is shown from a top-down perspective, lying flat. A bright, circular light source is positioned directly above the center of the book, casting a strong, radial glow that illuminates the pages and creates a lens flare effect. The light fades into a dark, almost black background. The text on the pages is visible but mostly obscured by the shadows and the central light.

Review

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.
