

Lessons From The Plagues

Exodus 7-10

Lessons From The Plagues

Wrong on the part of others can be used to demonstrate the power of God.

Our obedience should be just as we have been commanded.

When the heart is not moved to do what is right, it is hardened.

The absurdity of waiting until tomorrow.

God takes care of His people.

Some make promises and pleas only when they are down.

Those who fear God regard His word and obey.

God expects us to pass knowledge of Him on from generation to generation.

Stubbornness/rebellion has consequences.